Lumumba Is Killed; Civil War Feared

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, Feb. 13 (AP) — Patrice Lumumba is dead, the Katanga government announced today, and the African villagers who killed him have received a reward of $8,000. The interior ministry of this secessionist province declared the Congo's deposed premier was "massacred yesterday morning" along with two aides said to have fled with him three days earlier. U.S. Livestock Guess Is Set at 97.1 Millions

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (UPI) — The agriculture department today estimated the Jan. 1, 1961, cattle population at 97,139,000 head, up one per cent from last year's newly revised estimate.

The department said beef cow numbers increased two per cent and the total of all other cattle classes, except milk cows, was up from a year earlier. Milk cow numbers declined one per cent to 19,291,000 head, the smallest number since 1959.

Estimate Lowered

This was the third consecutive year in which cattle numbers have increased. The total shown in today's report, however, was below the level of earlier agriculture department estimates.

Recent completion of census bureau summaries of the 1950 agriculture census revealed to department officials that their estimates had been too high. As a result, the revised estimate of all cattle as of Jan. 1, 1960, is now 96,236 head, one per cent below the previous estimate, and the figure for last Jan. 1, reflects that revision.

Other Estimates Made

The department, in a summary report today on the overall livestock and poultry inventory as of Jan. 1, also said that:

Hogs totalled 55,305,000 head, up six per cent from a year earlier because of the decrease in the pig crop.

Sheep and lambs totalled 32,000 head, down one per cent from a year earlier.

Chickens totalled 375,910,000, up three per cent from a year earlier.

Turkeys totalled 6,840,000, up per cent from a year earlier.

Medical Care Plan Goes to Congressmen

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (UPI) — Congress got the Kennedy administration's detailed proposals for medical care for the aged today. Following up his message on the subject of health and welfare, President Kennedy today submitted to the house and senate proposed legislation to enact a new social security plan.

Dressed in conservative business suits, and accompanied only by their attorneys, they arrived from the White House and were ordered to surrender.

All appeared calm.

After fingerprinting them, U. S. Marshall William O'Brien said he would handcuff them — two to each hand — and then drive them in two automobiles to the Montgomery county prison in nearby Norristown.

At Norristown, they will join two Westinghouse executives who asked to start their 30-day terms last Friday — three days early.

Beginning their terms today are William S. Ginn, 45, a General Electric vice president from Schenectady, N. Y.; George E. Burns, a GE vice president who lives in Cleveland, O., but is on special assignment for manufacturing services at Louisville, Ky.; Lewis J. Burger, 48, Port Wayne, Ind., GE division manager who formerly headed the switchgear division, and Edwin R. Jung, 58, vice president of Clark Controller company, Cleveland.

One Sentence Delayed

A seventh man sentenced to jail for his part, John Marvin Cook, 54, Fox Point, Wis., marketing vice president of Cutler-Hammer, Inc., Milwaukee, Wis., was granted a week's delay in his start term because of his daughter's engagement party this week.

The two Westinghouse Electric corporation executives already in prison are John H. Chiles, Jr., 57, Sharon, Pa., vice president of the transformer division, and Charles I. Mautel, 60, Drexel Hill, Pa., sales manager of the steam turbine division.

Labor Temple in Orden-Destroyed

ODEN, Feb. 13 (UPI) — Fire made a furnace of Oden's Labor temple early today, causing untold damage and injuring one firefighter.

Every piece of available firefighting equipment was summoned to the general alarm from, and officials even called in off-duty firemen to help out.

The injured fireman, Robert E. Russo, 25, was blown from the roof of an adjoining building by a blast of air and "back-draft" from the fire.

Russo fell 15 feet to the next roof and was later hospitalized with a leg injury and a possible fractured ankle and heel. He was listed in satisfactory condition.

Kennedy Has Quiet Sunday

MIDDLEBURG, Va., Feb. 13 (AP)—President Kennedy today ended his first outing to his retreat in the swank, snow-mantled Virginia mountain country. Neither he nor the people who will be his occasional neighbors seem to have disturbed one another unduly.

Kennedy's initial week-end away from the White House routine provided an opportunity for a minimum of the work which a chief executive never escapes completely. It offered a maximum of rest, reading before an open fire, and romping with his busy, bounding daughter, Caroline, 3.

The Twin Falls station is one of 23 in Oregon, Idaho and southern Washington in the Portland recruiting district.

Russians Still Work on Man In Space Try

LONDON, Feb. 13 (UPI)—Despite its Venus probe, Soviet Russia still is determined to beat the United States in getting a man into space. British and other expert space sources cautioned today against any belief the Russians have decided to forego this ambition in favor of interplanetary exploration.

These experts, assessing the latest Russian venture in the light of their special knowledge, believe the Venus rocket is only one-prong of the Soviet space program.

The main emphasis of the program still is to make sure that the first human who orbits the Earth is a Russian.

Kennedy Rights VIEWS Criticized

WASHINGTON, Feb. 13 (UPI)—Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R. N. Y., has termed President Kennedy's approach to civil rights "insufficient" and urged a broad federal attack to assure all Americans of equal opportunities.

Javits had long advocated legislation to give technical aid and money to public schools trying to desegregate.

He said, in an interview over New York state radio and television stations, that the civil rights division of the Justice department should be "bent up" with enough people and money to enforce the laws in relation to "voting."

RETURN THOSE BOOKS!

Normally there is little or no cause for concern because a book borrowed from a public library happens to be overdue. Fines for such infractions are small and don't take any drastic chunks out of present-day inflated incomes. Library patrons are likely to shrug, pay the few pennies in fines and go through the whole process again. It's usually possible to get a "renewal" on the books if something has delayed the reader, but this entails a trip to the library and it's awfully inconvenient.

So you can imagine the consternation in East Orange, N. J., when police arrested 14 people, mostly late at night, and tossed them into jail on charges of failing to return books on time. Some of them even had to spend the night in jail because they couldn't raise bond money!

The resulting screams have brought a plan of warning before arrests, but East Orange officials are going ahead with their drive to recover overdue books.

It's not surprising that the East Orange action has even resulted in return of overdue books in Twin Falls. Librarian Arthur L. DeVolder reports a man stopped him in a store, delivered an overdue book and paid his fine on the spot. It would be interesting to know how many long-overdue library books have been returned by readers across the country since the East Orange incident.

Admittedly the action taken in New Jersey is drastic, but librarians at times must feel the whole reading public is plotting against them. It is their responsibility to provide books of all types for the reading public. Librarian DeVolder reports the loss of some 575 books in the past three years, most of which were checked out of the library by people who subsequently moved from the area. So for the price of a library card here and there, it's possible to collect an impressive individual library.

At worst the East Orange incident could be classed as high-handed police treatment of citizens and at best it could rate the gratitude of librarians everywhere for focusing attention on a bothersome and costly problem.

NEEDED AGREEMENT

West Germany is the second most prosperous nation in the West and it is altogether fitting that it should help the United States to ease its current international economic difficulties.

The Germans are now offering that assistance on terms which seem reasonable for this country to accept.

Late last fall an American mission to the Bonn government failed to attain agreement, reportedly because it insisted on certain unrealistic features. Whatever was proposed, the Germans rejected it and nothing was gained.

Now the Germans are suggesting on their own initiative most of the things they wanted to propose at that time.

To ease America's balance of payments deficit, they would prepay all but 200 million dollars postwar debt to us. They would toss in 250 million advance on German arms purchases to be made here.

On top of this, Bonn would up its NATO contribution for certain purposes by 12 million dollars and allot funds for still more arms purchases. It would likewise give thought to taking over some foreign development projects currently supported by this country.

In the highly technical field of interest rates and gold flow, the Germans would try to help, too. They would maintain their present restrictions on the conversion of German dollar reserves into gold. The dollars-into-gold trend in Europe has been the major sore spot for America.

Bonn would hold the German bank rate at 3 per cent in an effort to discourage short-term investors. Another troubling factor has been the flow of dollars abroad in response to the attractions of high interest rates.

These measures, matched against nearly a score proposed by the Kennedy administration for general application to our international payments situation, could be extremely beneficial.

It is important to get past this upsetting phase in our foreign economic affairs so that we can work more constructively abroad on development projects.

In that work we need the enlarged participation of prosperous West Germany. For that reason it would be well if we can reach a quick and amicable accord with Bonn on the loan and payments proposals it has now presented.

HISTORY REPEATS

A report to President Kennedy by Rep. Elmer J. Holland, D., Pa., contains some statistics that are pretty gloomy on the surface. Examples: Automation has eliminated 160,000 jobs in the auto industry, 50,000 in radio and TV manufacturing. Machines will take over four million clerical jobs in the next five years.

In the long run, however, machines and automation will provide a better life for more people as they have in the past, despite immediate displacements. The world has learned that much since English workmen rioted and destroyed the first textile machines in the 18th century.

WASHINGTON—Two sharply contrasting schools of thought and action have clashed over methods for expanding and stimulating the economy during President Kennedy's preparation of a "get moving" program, for presentation to Congress.

In possibly an oversimplified description, one represents the viewpoint of the business and financial community, although by no means is it confined to so-called conservatives or reactionaries. Many of the academic liberals summoned to Washington adhere to their solution.

THE OTHER faction represents the labor and consumer elements which contributed so heavily to last November's Democratic victory. Whereas the business spokesmen emphasize the wisdom of expanding and modernizing the nation's productive plant, the other group stresses the need for increasing purchasing power for millions of customers.

RELIEF FOR BUSINESS — The businessmen's proposals are being pressed by Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon. It should be noted, however, that the New York financier has not taken an arbitrary or dogmatic position. He has simply given his ideas to the White House.

The opposition is headed by Secretary of Labor Arthur J. Goldberg, a former union official, and by Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman, a farmer-labor politician. But they have the backing of several White House economic advisers.

Generally speaking, the Dillon advocates propose relief in the form of faster and more general depreciation write-offs for industrial expansion; reduction in the heavy taxes on corporation and high-paid individuals; the closing of tax loopholes on oil and other minerals; elimination of certain tax deductions on dividends, and a program of wage-price stability.

ELECTION OF REMEDIES — They point out that at least one-third of our 300 billion dollar industrial plant has become obsolete. In their opinion, unless corporations are provided with incentives, they cannot expand or modernize, and will be unable to compete with newly constructed facilities in Europe and Japan.

As a final recommendation, this group notes the need for preventing further inflation by the stabilization of production and retail costs through labor-management cooperation. It is their contention that American goods have been priced off the foreign market because of our high production costs.

While not completely disputing some of these arguments, the Goldberg-Freeman faction believes that the greatest economic stimulant would be a prompt boost in buying power for millions of consumers now unable to fill their needs.

BOOST FOR CONSUMERS — It is the lack of this factor, according to the secretaries of labor and agriculture, which accounts for the fact that many key industries—steel, aluminum, copper, electronics, automobile—are operating at only a small percentage of total capacity.

They also recall that it was the maintenance of retail purchasing ability which was a major factor in pulling us out of the two minor recessions in the 50's.

In their belief, taxes should be reduced in the lower and middle-income brackets. The hourly minimum wage should be increased without delay by giving it legislative priority.

The government should accelerate the spending of millions, possibly billions, on public works, education, health, urban reconstruction, defense, etc. Interest rates even below the point President Kennedy has fixed, should be lowered on homes underwritten by Uncle Sam.

As noted above, these conflicting proposals represent no bitter or basic war of economic or ideological theories. There is no feud such as occurred in 1960's time. They are merely the sum of the solutions suggested to President Kennedy as he builds his crowded wagon en route to the "New Frontier."

VIEWS OF OTHERS

VARIATIONS IN BANKRUPTCY

People, who for one reason or another, are disposed to take a pessimistic view of this country's economic situation may be expected to point lugubriously to the records showing an increasing number of bankruptcies.

They may cite statistics showing that new bankruptcy cases filed in federal courts during the year ending last June 30 totaled 110,034 and reached an all-time high. And that is quite true.

As compared with the records of a generation ago, it's a shocking increase. But bankruptcy today doesn't mean what it once did, when it was counted a great shame and disgrace to resort to that procedure, and heroic effort was commonly put forth to avoid it.

True it is, now as always, that inept business enterprises go broke when competition tightens and they are forced into bankruptcy.

But the bankruptcy laws have been considerably broadened in recent years so that the records now include a good-many-business organizations that use corporate reorganization provisions of the law instead of going through straight bankruptcy.

Another significant change comes about in consequence of an increasing number of wage earners who go into bankruptcy court, not to escape payment of their obligations, but to take advantage of new provisions of the law which permit wage earners to postpone debt payments under the court's supervision.

We do well, then, to look under the chip when we're solemnly warned that the country's going to pot, because, forsooth, the bankruptcy figures are rising—Idaho Daily Statesman.

BETTER THAN MACHINES

A new system of electronic vote counting has been presented to Salt Lake county and Utah officials. It was developed in California for Los Angeles county, which was compelled to abandon voting machines when large and complex ballots exceeded machine capacity.

In addition to providing an answer to the problem of ballot complexity, electronic vote counting appears to offer many other advantages.

A major advantage is cost. It is believed the electronic system could be installed in Salt Lake county, for example, at about half the cost of voting machines. Maintenance and operating costs would be considerably less too because of greatly reduced cost for storage, moving to and from voting districts and repairs. There will be savings in election costs for counting ballots. Alvin Keddington, Salt Lake county clerk, says such savings here would approximate $17,000 an election.

Los Angeles county expects to pay for the system in savings achieved in four elections.

Other advantages are continuation of a familiar method of balloting, retention of an original record which can be audited, and faster voting during rush periods.

All in all this electronic vote counting system seems far superior to voting machines. Further investigation may be advisable to make certain that in practice it will perform as described. But the system is so apparently desirable that certainly no further move toward purchase of voting machines should be taken by Salt Lake county.—Salt Lake Tribune.

HATS OFF TO RESTRAINT

Our hat is off today to the cost subcommittee of the Citizens-Peab-Finders for Education, the information gathering group to point out details of a proposed school construction bond issue.

Each of six subcommittees was asked to make a report on its findings. The cost subcommittee discovered that cost was not a problem in the bond issue, and said so in two paragraphs. Keep in mind there was no limit on the length of the reports. Few committees could bring themselves to show such restraint.

We will always have a soft spot in our heart for a committee that gets the floor and does not monopolize it.—Idaho State Journal.

HOW THINGS APPEAR FROM PEGLER'S ANGLE

I found the following letter in the hall of our syndicate near the door of a brother columnist who makes a specialty of covering $1,000-a-plate, fund-raising banquets for worthy causes:

Gentlemen: We learn with interest that your distinguished organization is planning a fund-raising dinner at the grand ballroom of the Waldorf-Astoria. We trust that we may assist you in arranging the services of the most reliable, sure-fire attraction now in practice. At this time we are not able to mention the dignitary's name Westbrook Pegler because delicacy forbids us to openly solicit remunerative engagements.

You realize, no doubt, that distinguished speakers who adorn our attraction on early-morning walks along Park and Fifth avenue. They yell "Hiya, Harry!" and "Givemehell, Harry!" Some New York newspapers, finally suspecting that they were being used, failed to assign reporters to these men were reporters from rival papers.

We charge 15 per cent of the gross on every "plate" over the standard banquet minimum.

Transmitting these "plates" usually cost no more than $3.37 1/2, the margin of profit for the worthy cause is scarcely affected at all; especially in $1,000-a-plate affairs. We cooperate very heartily with all our clients as the receipts of these "plate" promotions have shown.

Our dignitary, himself, hit upon the novelty of calling historic and merely prominent persons liars and S. O. B.'s. Our fee for calling General MacArthur a liar is $1 a "plate" in addition to his normal fee and the surcharges for scenes with "taxi-men" and "reporters." For calling Arthur Krock of the New York Times a liar, his fee is 50 cents per "plate."

This year, our dignitary plans to call General Eisenhower a damned liar. For this added verbiage we feel justified in asking 50 cents additional per "plate." As usual, our dignitary will call each individual a liar or, in the case of General Eisenhower, a

Cassia Area Feedlot Tour Draws Crowd

BURLEY, Feb. 13—More than 80 persons attended the Cassia county feedlot tour Friday, reports Glenn Boddy, Cassia county agent.

Raymond Bean, Burley, won first for grading and weight guessing of beef cattle at the Wayne Garrard ranch east of Declo. He received a cup and pair of gloves.

Other winners were W. E. Konus,

Ontario, Ore., who is in charge of Amalgamated Sugar company, beef strip steers, second; and Reed Bowen route 2, Burley, third.

The first place visited was the Bryant packing plant near Burley where the group viewed several carcasses from prime and choice to standard. They also saw what is known as "dark cutter," the carcass of an animal that became excited before being killed.

It was explained that the meat was not affected, but housewives will not buy it, therefore it has to be used in other ways such as wiener.

Points of grading were discussed by Morris Hemstrom, extension animal husbandman from the University of Idaho, Moscow, and Lewis Bryant of the packing company.

The group then gathered at the Hall Livestock company in the southeast part of Burley where Forrest Hall explained his method of handling bran, grains and beef pulp. These livestock rations were picked up by augers, then into a pit picked up by another auger and placed on scales above a truck where about 25 pounds was dumped.

An all-bran ration was discussed as well as an all-concentrate diet. Methods of chopping hay and feeding it were demonstrated.

Lie Detector Tests Used by Companies To Check on New Applicants for Jobs

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 13—The rubber hose is stretched across your chest. Then the electrode is placed in your hand. The gray cloth of the blood-pressure machine is wrapped around your arm. You look straight ahead at a blank wall.

In a quiet, slow voice the man asks you questions.

"Is your name Jack Collins?"

"Are you 38 years old?"

"Have you ever stolen from your employer?"

"Do you have a police record?"

All the time the questions are asked, and all the time you think and answer, three metal arms make small zig-zag lines on an endless roll of paper.

You're taking a lie detector test. The test is not to determine whether you will go to jail. It will help determine if you get a job.

Keener says just the opposite is true.

Giving lie detector tests to job applicants is a growing national trend. In Dallas this year about 20,000 persons will be tested by Truth Verification, Inc., the largest company of its kind in the country, says its president, Lee Keener.

Truth Verification's services are also used by employers trying to determine who stole the six radios from the stockroom, who took $56 from the cash register, who took the bottle of whisky from room 432 of the hotel.

And it is used, says Keener, by the chambermaid who wants to prove she did not take the whisky, the sales clerk who says he didn't take the money, and the three shipping clerks who claim the radios were gone when they came to work Monday morning.

A company using Keener's services sends all job applicants to Truth Verification after they have filled out their employment applications.

Not all agree to the tests, however.

Claudine Johnson, manager of an employment agency, says three out of four persons asked to take the tests object. Two of the three take them, nevertheless.

Other employment agency managers say they have had no complaints about the tests.

Keener says, "About two per cent of the applicants fail to show up for the test. We have checked on these two per cent, and we find that 95 per cent of them have some kind of background problem.

Glen Parke, Malta, was a guest. Announcement was made that a board of directors meeting would be held Tuesday night.

Open House At Buhl PTA Draws Crowd

BUEHL, Feb. 13—Approximately 300 parents participated in regular class schedules held in conjunction with the open house at the local high school last week, sponsored by the Buhl PTA.

Parents attended the six class periods of their children's schedules. Teachers explained the context of the class and parents viewed their youngsters' work and projects.

Elwood Gledhill, principal, greeted parents. Highlight of the evening's program was visiting the new foreign language laboratory. Gledhill said this type of room will help students cover more material, improve listening comprehension and help them speak a foreign language better.

Students also will be able to listen to pre-recorded conversation and to record their own voice, thereby being able to check errors in dictation. Gledhill pointed out the sound equipment has been installed inside the desk in such a manner that the tops will fold down, allowing use of the desk top for study or writing as in other classrooms.

German Pupil Gives Talk at Banquet Meet

BURLEY, Feb. 13—"Girls and boys go to different schools in Germany," stated Tracy Hofmann, foreign exchange student from Germany, when she addressed members of the B-Teens club at the annual banquet held in the Empire room of the National hotel Thursday evening.

"Our youths do not date until after they are through gymnasium, or schooling, and they are around 18 years old," she told the group. "Girls and boys go to places of recreation together such as swimming in the summer, but they have no contacts during school time."

She related the differences in the German schools and those in the U.S. and expressed her appreciation and thanks to the club for making it possible for her to come to Idaho.

The B-Teens raised money over a two-year period in order to have an exchange student. They are working to earn enough money to sponsor another student and the Spanish club has asked to work with them on the project. It is hoped to have a student from a Spanish speaking country.

Kathleen Fronek presented a comic number and Kathy Schatzman gave a humorous reading. The junior class sextet sang several numbers. Members included LuAnn Jolley, Susan Hansen, Marjorie Nielsen, Randy Garrard, Connie Holbrook and Karen Harris. Marie Hanks was program chairman and led group singing.

The B-Teens have 120 members and are sponsoring a dance following the last home basketball game between Oakley and Burley to be held Saturday at the gymnasium. They also will have the concessions during the game.

"Capri day" is tentatively set for Friday, April 7, when girls who pay 25 cents may wear capri pants to school for the day. These will be fund raising projects.

March Hatch, president, was mistress of ceremonies. Mrs. E. R. Blauer is adviser. Other officers are Sandy Beck, vice president; Loretta Batten, secretary-treasurer, and Diane Allen, chaplain. Gloria Carter was in charge of decorations and Kenneth Anderson, arrangements.

Care of Your Children

By ANGELO PATRI

Betsy, aged 5, newly introduced to kindergarten and highly entranced by all she found there, looked up at her mother sitting opposite her at the table and asked, "Did you ever go to kindergarten, Mother?"

"Of course I did. Why?"

"I just wondered did you ever have to sit on a little hard chair for a long, long time?"

"I don't remember having to do so. No. Why?"

"Today I guess she forgot us cause she sat at the desk writing, writing and if anybody so much as giggled she tapped with her pen and said, 'Hushup! Did you have that when you went?'"

"Oh, I guess so. But I don't remember that much but I do remember the games and the parties. On Valentine's day, such fun. We all made Valentines, then on Valentine's day we all got Valentines and we had pink heart cookies, and pink, ice cream. Such fun. I think maybe you will have a party like that. I'm sure you will." (Mother-who-doesn't know that.)

Parents often forget what a keen interest their children have in their past experiences; what happened to them in school; what kind of experiences they had with their teachers; what friends they had and what they did in play hours. When a father or mother takes time to tell their children some of their past experiences including troubles, failures, scrapes, as well as successes, a web of affectionate understanding is woven that becomes an enormous strengthening bond of understanding between them as the years pass. Mother had her first beau, her first big party, and the party dress, her first disappointment in a friend and if she tells her story truthfully, she will help her daughter more than a thousand parental lectures could ever hope to do.

The same idea applies to fathers. If they would tell their small boys stories of their day, their trials, troubles and tribulations at the same age, they would loom taller and stronger than ever in the minds of their small sons, and if they continued to draw from their past experiences in truth and faith they could become the greatest influence for good in the lives of their children.

It helps parents to keep on an even keel when considering their children's accomplishments so to refresh their memories. The father who never got an A card in his life, never took "honors" but managed to get by might not be so hard on his son who gets an occasional B.

Too often, parents keep their past youth a closed book. If they opened it occasionally for the benefit of their children they would help themselves and the children to better understanding.

Home Economist Is Guest Speaker For Jerome FHA

JEROME, Feb. 13 — Mrs. Malcolm Plestic, home economist, was guest speaker at last week's meeting of the Jerome Future Home-makers of America.

She was introduced by Eileen Jenkins, past program chairman. Mrs. Plestic teaches the fourth grade at Washington school. Prior to moving to Jerome two years ago, she taught home economics in Shoshone.

Her topic, "Values of a broad homemaking educational program," stressed that girls who take home economics are well prepared not only for making better home life for themselves but also to get ahead in the professional field, especially if they major in the subject at college.

FHA not only teaches sewing and cooking, but also teaches the girls to get along with one another and to work together. Social graces, consumer education, home nursing, child care, food preparation and preservation, meal planning and a total nutritional program also are included. Making clothing to fit in with present wardrobe and compliment it also is stressed.

Many intangibles also are derived from this course and home experiences are helped a great deal," noted. "Also, Mrs. Plestic said that many personnel managers are looking not only for employees with good schooling, but perhaps even more important they are looking for employees who can get along with other people in all sorts of tasks.

Donnetta Halverson installed the second semester officers. They are LaRue Branch, president; Kay Nelson, vice president; Linda Matthews, secretary; Bonnie Lowe, treasurer; Roberta Carroll, degree chairman; Annetta Stuhberg, parliamentarian; Christine Coupe, recreation chairman; Sharon Dirk, historian; Evelinda Hinze, vice chairman; Carol Farnsworth, program chairman, and Carol Bond, public relations chairman.

After the installation LaRue Branch presented Donnetta Halverson with a miniature gavel denoting past president to be added to her FHA pin.

Mrs. Carter Luther and Lorna Luther were introduced as guests. Parents and friends also were introduced. Mrs. Paul Prichard, chapter mother, and Mrs. Ralph Dunn, chapter adviser also were introduced.

It was announced that Sheryl Webster and Paula Prichard will be in charge of the homemade candy sale to be held at noon on Valentine's day at the school.

Mrs.

Palmer, Sanders Meet in Playoff In Phoenix Open

PHOENIX, Ariz., Feb. 13 (AP)—Arnold Palmer and a man who infringed his patent on incredible finishes, Doug Sanders, met today in a golf match that seemingly could not be—an 18-hole playoff for the Phoenix Open championship. The winner gets $4,300, the loser $3,000, and each takes a fourth of the day's gate receipts. Sanders was eight big strokes behind the front-running Palmer Sunday at the start of what was scheduled as the final round.

He proceeded to slash eight strokes off par to set an Arizona Country club course record of 62, while Palmer had to scramble for an even par 70. They pulled into the 12-hole mark deadlocked at 20, 10 under par for the distance. Sanders, 27-year-old advocate of the short backswing, was the picture of perfection as he drove out of the fairway only once; hit every green in regulation and rang up a card of 10 pars and eight birdies.

Palmer also parred his holes, but his four birdies were offset by an equal number of bogeys in his worst round of the tournament.

Palmer came into the 18th needing a birdie 4 to tie. His second shot was in the fringe at the left of the green, 50 feet from the pin. He ran the ball up with his putt, but hit too strongly and rolled eight feet past. The great pressure player got down from there for his birdie.

Jack Fleck, who won the Phoenix Open last year in a playoff with Bill Collins, finished one back at 21 for third money of $2,000. Don January was fourth at 272 for $1,700. Dave Marr and Johnny Pott tied for fifth with 274, winning $1,450 each. Collins and tournament tenderfoot Jackie Cuptil of Longview, Tex., each took $1,250 with 275.

Hockey Teams Have Big Day at Home

By United Press International

Those hard-charging, two-fisted American Hockey Leaguers are really "momma's boys" at heart.

Away from the comforting home fire and ice, five of the six visiting AHL clubs dropped decisions over the week-end. Only Rochester managed to win on the road.

Sunday was the big day for the hometowners. Buffalo, led by a quart with four points, mauled Hershey 5-1. Dan Poliziano's two goals and a pair of assists spearheaded the 7-1 victory over Cleveland. Rochester perfectly completed the home-team day and its week-end with a 4-2 defeat of Quebec. Joe Crozier notched a goal and two assists for the winners.

Ray Kinasewich's two tallies led Hershey's 4-1 humbling of Quebec Saturday night. Bob Kabel kept Springfield in the game against Buffalo with two goals and Harry Edmire's shot won it for them in overtime as the Indians edged the Bisons 4-3. Hank Clesin's score with 48 seconds remaining enabled Rochester to register the visitors' only victory as the Americans clipped Cleveland 3-2.

The AHL is idle tonight.

No Comfort Found in U. S. Skating Event

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13 (UPI)

U. S. figure skating patrons found little comfort in the past week-end's North American championships as Canadians skated off with three of the four titles at stake.

The truth is that Uncle Sam has one skater who may develop into a medal winner at the 1964 Olympics — 16-year-old Laurence Owen of Winchester, Mass.

Miss Owen was the only U. S. skater in the North American. A medal competition with Canada. Her margin over Canadian champion Wendy Oriner in the women's singles was as thin as a hair.

Like the Olympic games, there is no official team winner in the North American meet.

Winners were Donald Jackson of Oshawa, Ontario, in the men's singles, and the Canadian dance team of Virginia Thompson and William McLachlin, both of Toronto, and pairs team Maria and Otto Jelinek.

Louis Predicts Robinson Win

BAN JACINTO, Calif., Feb. 13 (UPI)

Sugar Ray Robinson will win his bout with middleweight champion Gene Fullmer if he keeps practicing as he is now, former heavyweight champion Joe Louis predicted.

"He will surprise, even" Jack Dempsey as well as Fullmer and score a knockout," Louis said after watching Robinson work out before a capacity crowd of 400 persons. "I pick Ray in the seventh or eighth round."

Jack Dempsey, another former heavyweight champion, had predicted a clear victory for Fullmer. "Ray looks sharper to me and better physically than he has for 10 years," Louis said. "Ray showed great speed in his legs, good punching and a good desire."

Third for Palmer

PHOENIX, Feb. 13 (UPI)

Dilly Johnson, Provo, Utah, finished in three-way tie for 35th place in the Phoenix golf tournament. Johnson had a 72-hole total of 283 and won $25. His rounds were 78, 70, 71 and 73.

McBeth Wins

Kenneth McBeth, Rupert, won the Idaho State Indoor Pistol championship here yesterday and the Twin Falls Gold team won the team championship.

McBeth scored 834 out of a possible 900 points while the Twin Falls team netted 1,074 points. This was the fifth time the Twin Falls team has won this honor, but the first since 1954.

Bolse won the first master team honors with a 1,073, and Rupert, defending champions, won first expert team honors with a 1,073.

John Lowry, Pocatello, was second place behind McBeth with an 831, and C. Van Ausdale, Kearns, Utah, was third with 827.

Emily Davidson, Boise, won the women's championship with a 780.

McCall Youth Wins Slalom Ski Events

PORLAND, Feb. 13 (UPI)—David Engen, 16-year-old high school junior from McCall, won both the slalom and giant slalom races in the Cupid cup week-end ski races at Mt. Hood.

Sandy Shellworth of Boise did the same thing in the junior expert girls races.

Engen and Miss Shellworth appeared to have clinched berths on the Pacific Northwest team which will compete in the national junior ski championships at Stowe, Vt.

Engen's times in the 17-gate giant slalom were 3:44 and 3:42 seconds—a total of 1:08.6. Norman Zachery of Payette Lakes, Idaho, was second in 1:09.2.

Miss Shellworth's times were 38 and 36.8 seconds—a total of 1:14.8. Joyce Johnson of Payette Lakes was second in 1:16.6.

John Seetin of Payette Lakes won the junior intermediate boys giant slalom in 36 seconds. Only one run was made.

Toronto and Chicago Head For Playoff

By The Associated Press

The fastest-moving teams in the National Hockey League—Toronto and Chicago—appeared headed for a first round playoff meeting that overtake as the Indians edged the Bisons 4-3. Hank Clesin's score with 48 seconds remaining enabled Rochester to register the visitors' only victory as the Americans clipped Cleveland 3-2.

The AHL is idle tonight.

Italian Wins In Bobsled Race Event

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Feb. 13 (UPI)—Hardly pausing to look back on a superb performance in getting his fifth straight two-man world bobsled championship, Italy's Eugenio Monti today began preparing to defend the world four-man crown next weekend.

Monti drove his sled like a wayward comet Sunday and shattered all two-man speed records on the mile, Mt. Van Hoevenberg run. His fourheat time of four minutes 42.67, smashed Stan Benham's old mark of 4:42.83 set almost four years ago.

The topper was an almost fantastic 1:09.22 ride over the final heat that crushed the hopes of a young American marine, 24-year-old Gary Sheffield, whose Dad used to ride with Benham.

Sheffield surprised the European-dominated contingent by finishing second with a time of 4:45.74. He, too, buzzed down the mile in the final heat in superlative time 1:10.41.

Second Player Is Signed by Team

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 13 (UPI)

Harold (Frostie) Norris, 25, became the second player yesterday signed by the Los Angeles Angels out of the 300 who showed up at the Angels' tryout camp.

Norris is a right handed pitcher with two years experience in organized baseball. He had a 6-8 record last year with Salem of the Northwest league and 18-3 in 1950 with Tri-City of the same loop. He also had records last year at 1-0 and 1-0 with Vancouver in the Pacific Coast league.

The Angels assigned Norris to their Fort Worth-Dallas AA club. He is six feet, three inches and weighs 195 pounds.

The other player signed from the tryout camp at Sawtelle was Bob Pous of Bakersfield, Calif., a third baseman and outfielder. He was given a contract Wednesday.

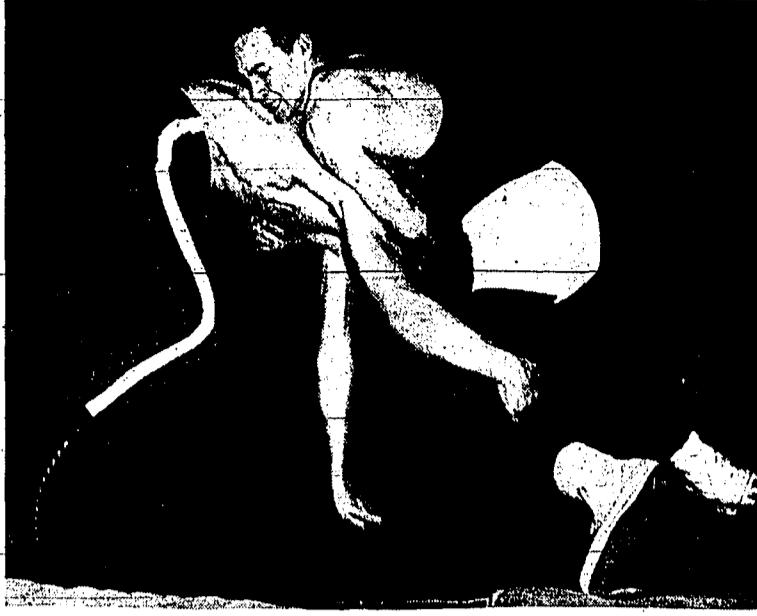

GOES TO FINALS

BILLINGS, Mont., Feb. 13 (UPI)—Woodie Marcus, an Idaho State college student from Salt Lake City, advanced to the finals of the Midland Empire golden glove tournament here this weekend in a decision over Keith Capps, Burns, Ore., in the lightweight division.

Harry Muholand of Wyoming scored a TKO over Fred Romor of Nampa in 10 seconds of the third round Saturday in the bantamweight class.

Chamberlain Checked; Boston Celtics Win

By United Press International

The ability of Bill Russell to check Wilt Chamberlain under the board has narrowed the Boston Celtics magic number to 11 in their bid for a fifth straight Eastern division title in the National Basketball Association. Russell grabbed 40 rebounds in Boston's 136-125 victory over second-place Philadelphia Sunday, thereby providing his teammates with many scoring opportunities to offset the 46 tallied by Chamberlain.

In other games, Syracuse beat Detroit 148-122; Cincinnati beat New York 105-104, and Los Angeles surprised St. Louis 105-95.

Seven Celtics hit in double figures because of Russell's defensive prowess. Sam Jones led Boston with 25 points, including nine straight late in the first half to lift the Celts to a 66-56 intermission lead.

The victory gave Boston a 6% game lead over Philadelphia and a 5-4 edge in the season's series with the Warriors.

Syracuse utilized a 48-point second quarter to carry the Nats to their fifth straight win and second in less than 24 hours over Detroit. The Syracuse 86-80 halftime margin set a club and war memorial record, but fell five points shy of Boston's league mark of 91. Hal Greer of the Nats had a game high of 34 points, while Bob Ferry topped the Pistons with 25.

Cincinnati rallied from 24 points back to nip the Knicks after the lead changed hands five times in the fourth quarter. A one-hander by Mike Farmer with 34 seconds remaining decided the issue. Oscar Robertson led the Royal surge with 32 points. Richie Guerin and Johnny Green each scored 24 for New York.

Elgin Baylor tallied 31 points in a triumph over St. Louis and handed the Hawks their third loss in 27 home games this season. St. Louis protested the game because of Los Angeles' Jim Krebs entering the game during the second period without reporting to the official scorer. The Hawks said the illegal substitution should have warranted a technical foul. Cliff Hagan kept St. Louis in contention with his 25 points.

Chicago's Blackwells made it five without a loss by whipping the Canadiens 3-1. Sunday night and now are six points up on Detroit, in what looks less and less like a race for third place.

In the other week-end games the cooled-off New York Rangers saw their playoff hopes further dimmed when they took an 8-3 drubbing in Boston Sunday night after struggling to a 3-3 tie with Montreal Saturday afternoon. With 15 games to go, the Rangers now trail Detroit by 10 points.

The Leafs built up a 3-1 lead over a Detroit team that started sluggish and wasn't stirred to action until it had heard the boos of the crowd of 14,952 for two periods.

Monti drove his sled like a wayward comet Sunday and shattered all two-man speed records on the mile, Mt. Van Hoevenberg run. His fourheat time of four minutes 42.67, smashed Stan Benham's old mark of 4:42.83 set almost four years ago.

Morgan said minor league baseball now is "stagnant on the mainland" and moving the Sacramento, Calif., franchise to Hawaii saved the PCL.

"We're envious of your baseball success here," he said. "The U. S. will gain more than the Japanese. We hope you accept us."

Hoyt Brawner is in his 13th season as the University of Denver basketball coach.

PCL, Japan World Series Being Urged

TOKYO, Feb. 13 (UPI)—At the urging of former baseball great Lefty O'Doul, baseball executive Nick Morgan, Jr., offered today to underwrite a little world series between the champion-of-Japan and the Pacific Coast league.

Morgan, at first said he would underwrite a series between his Hawaii team and the Japanese team.

At the outset, Morgan remarked he and O'Doul, a favorite in Japan, came together to enhance relations between the two countries.

Before the conference ended, he predicted the day will come when U. S. and Japanese teams will be in the same league.

Morgan at first said he would underwrite a series between his Hawaii team and the Japanese team.

Denver Youth Wins Nevada Slalom Race

RENO, Nev., Feb. 13 (UPI)—Denver university's John Koltzow was first and Utah's Jim Gaddis third in the slalom Sunday at the University of Nevada's Winter carnival.

Denver won the carnival on team points. Utah was second. Gaddis won the giant slalom Saturday, but DU placed more skiers in most events.

In the slalom Sunday DU's Charles Ferries, who was second in the giant slalom, was second to Koltzow in 69.9 seconds. Koltzow's time was 60.1.

Gaddis did it in 71.2 seconds. Fourth was Alan Engen of Utah in 74.9.

Torbjorn Yggeseth of the University of Washington won the slalom jump with a leap of 128 feet. He got 25.1 points. Chris Selbeck of DU was second and the University of Idaho's Halvard Grosvenor was third.

SAN MATEO, Calif., Feb. 13 (UPI)—A team of National league players defeated an American league team 7-3 yesterday in an all-star contest at Frank Allen.

The announcement was made by President Herman Wells of Indiana.

Boston Red Sox rookie, Don Gile, playing in his hometown, hit two home runs and drove in all three runs for the losers.

MARKET AT A GLANCE

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (UPI)—
NEW—Lower; trading slow.
Bonds—Mixed; light trading.
Cotton—Higher; trade and commission house buying.
Chicago—Wheat—Mixed; old crop months weak; new crop months strong.
Oats—Easier; scattered selling.

Cattle—Slaughter steers steady to weak; top $28.25.

NEW YORK, Feb. 13 (UPI)—Stocks
with many of the recent favorites suffering the biggest losses.

Scattered strength showed up in many parts of the list, however, while volume dropped considerably from last Friday's level. A good part of the volume declined was attributed to the effect of the Lincoln's birthday sabbatical holiday, but a lack of interest in the market was also a factor.

Drug issue, one of the strongest recent weeks, were clipped for some of the widest losses today.

White Dental and American Hospital Supply were particularly soft while losses of a point or more sprinkled over the rest of the market.

Motor stocks dipped fractionally, but Chrysler added a fraction. Dow and Eastman Kodak lost a point or more in the afternoon. The publishing stocks, Heinz dropped a couple in the stocks and Kimberly-Clark slipped in the neighborhood of three.

The overall selling atmosphere was an extension of the profit-taking trend. Most stocks said the list was moving too far ahead of the expected return in the economy and that some "correction" was needed.

International Telephone picked up a big fraction to a new high on its electronic group.

Teed & Gair and General Electric found support after a weak opening along with Westinghouse. Havco added nearly three in the chemical equipments. Delta airlines lost a point, but Continental dropped around two in the stocks but Honolulu gained around the same amount.
